

How is this legal to tell a specific media what services they can and can not offer? This is the most ridiculous thing I think I have ever heard. I understand that the National Association of Broadcasters is scared of losing business to satellite radio, but that does not give them the right to say what services should and shouldn't be allowed. If something like this ever passes then it is very scary what else would be allowed to happen.